

THE COSMIC VIOLET FLAME

There are cosmic tools that aid our healing, integration and transformation that all Souls have the birthright to utilize and wield. One of the most potent and powerful is THE COSMIC VIOLET FLAME. If you are reading this material, than you are one of these Souls. You deserve to be reminded and remember the power that lies dormant within you to dramatically CHANGE and balance anything internally (within you) and externally (in your physical reality as well as your multi-dimensional realities, simultaneously).

The cosmic violet flame is a non-linear process of transmutation that has recently manifested from THE COSMIC PARADIGM SHIFT that is now occurring in this dimension. No longer are the healing effects of the cosmic violet flame operating at only a linear level (i.e., one dimension of your consciousness, one area, or one lifetime at a time, etc.). This linear approach to balancing negativity/separation in any form takes way too long, too slow and with only small incremental positive results.

We are now capable of transforming ourselves at a cosmic level!

This means you can heal multi-dimensionally, karmically, past, present and future and all aspects of your consciousness simultaneously. You can literally paradigm shift yourself into full cosmic consciousness! Unresolved wounds, problems, mistakes, difficult relationships and other imbalanced issues (that resulted in you being in separation to your Soul and Divine Source in some form) that in the past may have taken years (or lifetimes) to heal can now be done (depending upon the individual and the severity of trauma) in days, weeks or months. Wow, what a great cosmic breakthrough of permanent RECONNECTION TO YOUR SOUL AND SOURCE for us all!

The Priestess of Delphi by John Collier

- Do you hunger and thirst to remember and reclaim more and ALL of who you truly are as a Soul? Do you yearn for a permanent reconnection to your Soul instead of being lost and unfulfilled in a false sense of self?
- Do you want a deeper, more profound permanent reconnection to your divine Source that birthed you as a Soul? Do you want to come HOME?
- Do you want to transmute, heal and balance your negative beliefs, emotions, thought patterns, behaviors and unresolved wounds that have plagued you and your life (and maybe many lifetimes) with misery and suffering?
- Do you want to be able to protect yourself from being attacked, possessed and interfered with in any way by "the dark"?

If you answered yes, then the cosmic violet flame can help you succeed at all of the above.

WHAT IS THE ALCHEMY OF THE COSMIC VIOLET FLAME?

Alchemists have "burned" with the desire to be able to change the "lead of separation" into the "gold of full reunion and reconnection" to Soul and Source via self-transformation. When we have been wounded, (we have all been hurt as the victim) or wounded others, (we have all hurt others as the perpetrator) this creates a disconnect (essentially a break/separation) to your Soul and Source that needs to be completely healed and balanced.

The cosmic violet flame will assist you in harmonizing and balancing your problem areas, unresolved wounds, mistakes, difficult situations and relationships back into the Truth of your Eternal Oneness to your Soul and Divine Source, Peace, Joy, Wisdom and Love. The cosmic violet flame as a unique frequency of cosmic spiritual energy having the qualities of transmutation (which means to change, alter, erase and integrate the existing form back into wholeness, harmony and balance), liberation, enlightenment, forgiveness, mercy, wisdom and understanding can heal your "breaks". Thus, RECONNECTING you to your Soul and Divine Source in more and more ways as you continually receive and integrate into your consciousness this sacred cosmic energy.

It integrates light and dark energies and all forms of polarity back into harmony and Oneness.

It can also obliterate negative, separation thought forms of consciousness. What I call the "lies of the dark" (i.e., "I don't deserve", "I am bad", "What I have done is so bad, I can't be forgiven", "Even Spirit – Goddess – God doesn't love me"!

UTILIZING THE COSMIC VIOLET FLAME TO BALANCE YOUR KARMA

It also works at a karmic level. Your actions (past, present and future) DO come back to you. This is the law of karma. What you put out, does come back. Most people must work off their karmic debts by selflessly serving the greater good by reaching out and helping others. This balancing of "bad karma" and generating good karma can take lifetimes when utilizing the linear karmic process of the old paradigm vs. the Cosmic Paradigm Shift. The new paradigm (working non-linearly) balances karma through a process of multi-dimensional, past, present and future simultaneous resolution of mistakes – imbalances – misuses of power – separations. This is so much faster and easier with the potential for generating instantaneous transformation at a cosmic, karmic Soul level depending upon the individual.

The cosmic violet flame is able to transmute, integrate and balance your karma as long as you do the following:

The first step is to truly take responsibility for your wounds and misuses of power (whether as a victim or perpetrator) by taking the right actions to feel, heal and balance the harm you have inflicted upon yourself and on others. Authentically feeling your pain, sorrow, shame, anger and hurt, etc., as the victim. Also, authentically feeling your guilt, shame and pain for harming others as the perpetrator. The crucial key here is to heal your wounds, learn from your mistakes and to no longer harm yourself or others in these ways. That you are truly able to accomplish PERMANENT CHANGE of your unhealthy ways of being into integrated, reconnected Oneness.

The second step is to go deeper into your healing process by authentically facing, feeling, integrating, releasing and healing your distorted beliefs, emotions, thought patterns and behaviors (as a victim or perpetrator) into consistent healthy ways of being (mentally, physically, sexually, emotionally, spiritually and karmically). By creating a permanent and consistent healthy relationship with yourself and a healthy relationship with others all karmic debts can begin to be completely balanced with the cosmic violet flame. However, using the cosmic violet flame will not balance your karma by itself, it is one tool to be used in conjunction with some kind of a holistic healing, feeling process by working with a professional. This combined transformational process is what truly heals your Soul and balances your karma.

No one can do deep, in-depth transformational work on unresolved wounds completely by themselves!

We all need the "keen eye, mind, heart and Soul" of a talented healing professional to help us to "see our shadow" and be our trail guide to understand, learn and practice the true steps to authentic healing, feeling and transformation. The opportunity to express out loud (this is called "breaking silence") to another our deepest pain, sorrow, anger, shame, fear and be truly heard and responded to with love and compassion is life changing! It is the TRUTH of healing magick.

REMEMBER, YOU HAVE TO FEEL TO TRULY HEAL!

The scars of old karma, hurts, painful memories, distorted beliefs, emotions, thoughts and behavior patterns can be evaporated with your consistent wielding of the cosmic violet flame (along with your personal healing program) in these problem areas. As your consciousness (mentally, physically, sexually, emotionally, spiritually and karmically – multi-dimensionally, past, present and future) simultaneously absorbs the cosmic violet flame (and by taking right action) you begin to integrate this self-transforming fire raising your vibration into higher and higher cosmic energetic levels and a greater and greater reconnection to your Soul and Divine Source. The end result is an increased:

- Right relationship with yourself/Soul
- Right relationship with others
- Right relationship with the world
- Right relationship with Spirit – Goddess – God
- Cosmic Oneness/Reconnection to Soul and divine Source

And, this is how you balance
your "bad karma" &
create good karma.

TRANSMUTTING INTERFERENCES BY THE DARK WITH THE COSMIC VIOLET FLAME

Utilizing the cosmic violet flame to "burn up" dark, negative thoughts, programs contracts and general interferences by the dark is extremely powerful. The dark assaults and hooks into (unless you are heavily shielded and protected) individuals multi-dimensionally with destructive electromagnetic energy 24 hours a day. The dark is hooked into many people in a variety of ways and is feeding off their essential life force leaving them possessed, drained, with health problems, addictions, fears and phobias to name a few.

This is done by dark, destructive electromagnetic energy (i.e., people with "bad vibes", entities, psychic vampires, psychic attacks, dark magic, demons, dark extra terrestrials) hooking into your unshielded physical body, chakras and auric field. The dark mind controls and possesses "the general population" (those that are less integrated and in a great deal of separation, unaware of a "bigger picture", very wounded, unshielded and don't believe "the dark" exists) through subliminals and distorted sound frequencies on TV, video, movies, radio, CD's, etc. Lies are propagated through printed material, newspapers and magazines. This is all done to manipulate the public with the dark's version of "the truth". The dark manipulates individuals into thinking, feeling and behaving in ways that suit the dark's agenda of maintaining power over the masses and tremendous interference of each person's personal and Soul sovereignty. Thus, creating conscious and unconscious feelings of submission, hopelessness, powerlessness, "the worst happening", fear, self hate, self destruction, addictions, poverty consciousness and general despair. It is much easier to control individuals when they feel "beaten down" and they are in complete survival. You can't grow and evolve as a Soul if you are terrified, possessed, addicted, starving, homeless, in poverty (financially or in spirit) and sick because your consciousness is completely absorbed in dealing with the demands of your desperate survival (whether you have money or not)! FEAR IS THE BIGGEST PROBLEM FOR MOST PEOPLE!

Look how addicted the mass population is to TV, movies and video programs, sports, food, alcohol, drugs, sex, the internet – internet pornography, spending money, gambling, etc.

As far as I am concerned, get rid of your TV and create your own reality!

These dark interferences create breaks, deep wounds and separation to your Soul and Divine Source. The dark's hidden agenda is to possess the consciousness of humanity with lies and manipulations to keep people in separation to the TRUTH of their Soul and Divine Source. The dark doesn't want you to wake up and take your power back by reconnecting to your Soul and Source! It wants to maintain a "power over" system that keeps individual's basically (in the dark) in a slave mentality – thinking, feeling and acting the way they want you to.

Unresolved wounds of childhood abuse, trauma and violence at any age attracts the dark and hooks them into you (energetically - mentally, physically, sexually, emotionally, spiritually and karmically). The dark feeds off the energy of great fear, pain, despair, rage, hate and destruction. It also mind controls, possesses and manipulates people to feel these emotions constantly, so it has a never ending energetic food supply!

Choose to no longer feed yourself and your beautiful Soul to the dark any longer – TAKE YOUR POWER BACK!

Utilizing the cosmic violet flame daily (along with your personal healing program) can help to build powerful shields of protection, transmute and clear dark energies in your physical body, chakras and auric field and heal negative beliefs, emotions, thought patterns and behaviors.

HOW TO USE THE COSMIC VIOLET FLAME

The energy of the cosmic violet flame is a cosmic vibrational frequency that emanates from the highest cosmic dimensions of Cosmic Spiritual Oneness. It can be accessed through your connection with your Soul and Divine Source (Spirit, Goddess, God) that is eternal. No matter how “disconnected” you may feel to your Higher Self, Soul and Divine Source, you do have a cosmic connection. Because of this, it is your birthright to wield and use the cosmic violet flame to (change anything internally within you and your external multi-dimensional realities - simultaneously) integrate, harmonize and balance polarities back into wholeness and obliterate dark lies and separations to the highest Cosmic Truth that are an assault to your sovereignty (i.e., beliefs such as, “I don't deserve to be loved by Spirit – Goddess – God”, “What I have done to myself and others is unforgivable”) as a Soul.

REMEMBER, THAT THE COSMIC VIOLET FLAME IS A NON-LINEAR TOOL THAT HEALS MULTI-DIMENSIONALLY, PAST, PRESENT AND FUTURE AND ALL ASPECTS OF YOUR CONSCIOUSNESS SIMULTANEOUSLY!

IMPORTANT - To accomplish this magickal alchemy with the cosmic violet flame you must begin this process by honestly owning, taking full responsibility and integrating into your heart the painful feelings, unresolved wounds, difficult situations, problems and mistakes you have made that you want to have the cosmic violet flame transform. The bottom line with TRUE TRANSFORMATION IS: “THAT IF YOU DON'T OWN IT, YOU CAN'T FEEL AND HEAL IT”! Owning “your stuff” consistently breaks down your wall of your denial which keeps you (in separation) from being able to truly heal what you want to with the cosmic violet flame. If you don't own your issue(s) then you are disconnected to it and it doesn't exist so, it can't be balanced.

The steps to use the cosmic violet flame are as follows:

1. Find a peaceful place where you will not be disturbed. Sit in a comfortable chair with your back straight, your feet flat on the floor and your arms uncrossed and resting your hands on your upper thighs with your palms up. Take a few deep breaths and center yourself.
2. Say the following decree out loud: “ I deserve to receive and use the cosmic violet flame. It is my birthright as a Sovereign Soul in Oneness with my Divine Source (insert what name feels right for you – Spirit, Goddess, God, etc.). I AM the cosmic violet flame.”

3. Breathe deeply and center all your love and devotion in your heart and repeat your decree as many times as you need to. Repeating your decree strengthens its power and draws more cosmic violet flame into your physical body, chakras and auric field. Once you are familiar with your decree, you can close your eyes while giving it and concentrate on visualizing the cosmic violet flame. Personalize your decree in any way that you want to so that it is a true expression of your Soul and your intentions! Have fun with it, be creative and use your imagination to make it REAL for you.

4. Visualize the cosmic violet flame by seeing your physical body completely surrounded (from the top of your head to the bottom of your feet, front and back and all sides) by a beautiful violet, pink, purple and gold colored bonfire. Gold is the energy and color of your Soul connected to your Divine Source. So, you are not only bringing in the cosmic violet flame but also a reconnection to your Soul and Source. These flames enter your body and ignite every cell, organ, your brain and spinal column, blood, bones, skin and hair. All that you are as a physical body is consumed by this loving, soothing, healing and integrative cosmic energy. This energy now enters and completely fills all your chakras. Then, expand the cosmic violet flame to fill your entire auric field, the big bubble that surrounds your physical body. By the time you are done with this, you have created yourself to be a huge ball of cosmic violet flame!

5. See your physical body, chakras and auric field melt into this energy to become one with it. Feel, think, see and believe that the cosmic violet flame is healing and balancing the totality of your Soul – physically, mentally, emotionally, sexually, spiritually and karmically, multi-dimensionally, past, present and future simultaneously!

6. Say out loud, think it, visualize it, feel and integrate into your heart what you want the cosmic violet flame to transmute within yourself and your life. Burn up all the lies you want to erase. Integrate, harmonize and balance any and all polarities of light and dark energies (i.e., love vs. hate, greed vs. unselfish, fear vs. courage) back into Oneness. To do this, visualize and feel both sides of the polarity you want to blend back into wholeness. The cosmic violet flame easily and powerfully erases lies and integrates anything within your consciousness (or unconscious) back into Oneness. Go with the cosmic flow and you will intuitively know how to use the violet flame for your greatest success! You will be surprised how EASY this process is, don't make it difficult. The cosmic violet flame, your Soul and Divine Source will lovingly guide you.

7. The bottom line with this technique is that the more you do this process the more powerful your results will be. Even a few minutes will achieve degrees of transformation, but your persistence is required to penetrate deep, ingrained habits that you want to permanently change. Do the work and you will be blessed with astounding growth and evolution as a Soul, that you have never achieved before. You can also add this technique to whatever prayers and meditations you currently practice.

8. I highly recommend sharing this technique with family and friends so that they can heal and balance themselves in all the ways that are specific to their personal needs and growth. Share this handout with them.

The cosmic violet flame along with your personal healing process can truly change your life, heal and balance old wounds and karma, reconnect you more deeply to your Soul and Divine Source to truly bring you HOME.

May the Great Cosmic Mother Goddess bless you with love, abundance, health, healing and awakening to the full potential of your Soul!
